

Let's know about the Japan Educational System!

In Japan, school starts from the month of April and ends on March of the following year. The compulsory education is elementary (from 6 yrs. old until 12 yrs. old for 6 yrs.) and junior high school (from 12 yrs. old until 15 yrs. old for 3 yrs.) with a total of 9 yrs. After that, some person also goes to senior high school and university.

In Higashiura town and Aichi Prefecture, the following support are given to the children so that they can go to school.

- Shuugaku Enryo- School Expenses Subsidy System (Higashiura Town)...This is a structure of support from the town for school supplies fee, school meal fee, school excursion fee and so on to help families with financial difficulties to send their children at elementary school and junior high school.
- Shougakukin- Scholarship Loan (Aichi Prefecture)...This is a structure of financial assistance, scholarship loan for high school and specialized high school for person who wish to study at schools. Foreign nationality with permanent residency or special permanent residency can apply for this scholarship loan.
- Koutou Gakkou Tou Shuugaku Shienkin (Kuni) High School Tuition Support Fund / Koutou Gakkou Tou Shuugaku Kyuufukin – High School Supplemental Fund-Grants for Supplemental Scholarship (Aichi Ken)...This is a structure of supplemental fund to households with low income in order to reduce the financial burden of educational expenses such as tuition fee etc. in Senior High School etc.

For more details, please make a consultation at your attending school.
